BOOKS AUTHORED

Walking as Artistic Practice (SUNY Press, 2023)

This book covers histories of walking as artistic practice, as well as many topical approaches to the medium, combined with many practical exercises.

Some Social Practice (Creative Commons, 2020).

This foundational text organizes/outlines the field of social practice and provides a history timeline for easy reference. It is published using Creative Commons licensing, underscoring core concepts of shared resources, which are central to socially engaged art practices.

Remixing and Drawing: Sources, Influences, Styles (Routledge, 2018).

This intermediate/advanced studio drawing text guides students through histories of remixing, and the process of executing a comprehensive survey of their own sources, influences, and styles.

Elements and Principles of 4D Art and Design (Oxford University Press, 2016).

This foundational text organizes/outlines the elements and principles of 4D (time-based) art and design to clarify the language used to discuss/critique 4D works.
